Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Souvenir Summer Sermons: Preached in Tent Evangel, Broadway and 56th St., New York City But He found none there; and then, in order that He might teach a great spiritual lesson. He cursed the tree. And that tree has been full of lessons to all the centuries since. Next morning, as He passed the place again with His disciples, Peter s quick eye saw what had happened, and he called the Lord s attention to the tree. He, instead of deducing the obvious lesson of the curse of God upon spiritual barrenness or sterility, diverged from it and deduced another, which to me is wonderful in depth and strength. What He really said was this: You see that tree; now, if you can reckon on God as I did, you may not only have the power that blighted that tree, but whenever mountains block you in you may move mountains. Evidently, Jesus in His human life did not work miracles by His divine attributes of omnipotence. He put that aside and prefered to live a purely human life, using pure faith in God-the faith that we can have through the Holy Ghost that came at Pentecost. Have faith in God! What did those words mean ? I shall never forget the occasion when in my church, Hudson Taylor, the head of the China Inland Mission, stood up and spoke from these words as a text. I did not know all the meaning that there was in them for the speaker, but I remember that he said the words were to be read as saving Count on God, Reckon on God s faithfulness - not on...
