Books and Islands in Ojibwe Country: Travelling Through the Land of My Ancestors (Paperback)

By Louise Erdrich

National Geographic Books, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 198 x 136 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In a small boat like those her Native American ancestors have used for countless generations, she travels to Ojibwe home ground, the islands of Lake of the Woods in southern Ontario. Her only companions are her new baby and the baby s father, an Ojibwe spiritual leader, on a pilgrimage to the sacred rock paintings their people have venerated for centuries as mystical teaching and dream guides, and where even today Ojibwe leave offerings of tobacco in token of their power. With these paintings as backdrop, Erdrich summons to life the Ojibwe s spirits and songs, their language and sorrows, and the tales that are in their blood, echoing through her own family s very contemporary American lives and shaping her vision of the wider world. Thoughtful, moving, and wonderfully well observed, her meditation evokes ancient wisdom, modern ways, and the universal human concerns we all share.
