Many of these kinks, adopted perhaps as eleventh-hour measures, made good so emphatically in practice that they represent definite forward steps in the handling of vital power details, and as such deserve the careful study of every engineer and executive who wishes to lop off all unneccessary cost-corners and make his plant increasingly efficient. This Book, the third of a famous and widely used series, has hundreds of just such kinks, gathered from all over the field, and contributed by ingenious men who have tried their ideas out in their own plants and found them worth passing on to others faced by similar difficulties. The Third Power Kink Book is larger than those...
