C., Sabbath Evening, April 24, 1864 2 Sam., 3: 34. Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters - as a man falleth before wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him! A brave man had fallen by assassination. He had not died as a felon or a coward. No earthly power could bind his hands or put his feet in fetters. None had ever been able to take him captive, or confine him in chains and prisons. He was swift as the roe of the mountain, with an eagle s eye, lion-hearted, strong in battle. His valorous deeds had made his name a household word in the nation. In an unsuspecting moment, he was ensnared. Jealousy, fear, rage and revenge - the base quaternion of passion under the guise of hypocrisy, set upon him and smote him down. Such a death went home to the heart of the people; at...
