Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.1in.When we open to life, we naturally embrace our true natures as beings of Divine Love. We rediscover a deep and nurturing connection to the Universal Love supporting our journeys of earth. This work resonates to the higher truth that at the core of our existence, we are deeply connected to all life. The poetic prose acts as a prayer to life, calling us to remember the deep connection we have with all beings, reminding us that we too carry the balanced and benevolent love of the Creator within our own hearts, as our own beautiful Source of love. As a conduit, psychic medium, and channel for Gaia, the author combines stunning nature photography with poetic prose to celebrate earth, water, fire, and air as living bearers of love, who unconditionally support our journeys within Gaias vast embrace. Excerpt: When I hear blossom petals jostling with brittled leaves, released at last from winters grasp, like curled, bronzed kites that dance across the sun-crossed street. . . The hardened leaves skip crisscross over the pavement, their tips echoing like faint stacattoed plucks. . . of far-off violins that rise and fall in pitch and duration. Like racing siblings, the new and old fly upon your playful breath. . . higher still, like colored flocks of tiny birds who swirl and dive in rounded dusty-rose and pearl-hued whites. With wistful abandon, they flutter by, pausing only briefly still, to kiss my skin, and then to finally rest upon the green-gray canvas, like plumped dots of glistening snow in full-bloomed spring that...
