The Womans American Baptist Home Mission Society of New England continues to co-operate with us in the most satisfactory manner. They have shown great zeal, intelligence and industry in the collecting of money, and have paid into our treasury, chiefly for educational work, during the year, the sum of 19, 307. 18. That Society, while thus contributing directly to our vork, maintains its own autonomy, determines for itself the amount of money it will contribute, selects the field where it shall be expended, nominates the teachers, and fixes their salaries. This arrangement seems well nigh an ideal one. Q The annual reports of the American Baptist Home Mission Society for 1838, 1858 and 186oare required to complete a file. Any subscriber who can spare one or more of these reports will confer a favor by writing to the Corresponding Secretary, 1...
