This eclectic mix of short stories spans countries far and wide, an array of genres, characters old and young, and has pithy, clever plots that will have you utterly addicted. Set in rural Dorset, The Hireling is a story packed full of intrigue. Opening at the celebratory scenes of the annual Hireling fair, the story soon turns dark and mysterious. Redman, the poultry fettler is a shady character who keeps himself to himself. But is he hiding a terrible secret? Is he responsible for the savagery during the early morning hours? From fun and laughter to murders and mayhem - will the real killer ever be found? She Loves Me tells the story of a down-on-his-luck London busker whose life is transformed when he buys a dancing dog from a questionable old character in the local pub. The crowds gather every time he plays, fill his cap with cash and afterwards, he and the dog celebrate in style. But when...
