Now available in trade-paperback is the haunting story of a sensitive, observant girl who finds her voice in 1988 Gaza City. The year is 1988 in Gaza City, and it has been a month since eleven-year-old Malaaks father left to seek work in Israel, only to disappear. Every day Malaak climbs to the roof and waits, speaking little to anyone, preferring the company of the little bird she has tamed. But her twelve-year-old brother, Hamid, has a different way of coping. He feels only anger, stoked by extremists who say violence is the only way to change their fate. Malaaks mother begs him to stay away from harm, but Malaak lives in fear of losing her brother as well. What will it take for her to find her voiceand the strength to move past the violence that surrounds her This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN.
