Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Orkney Book: Readings for Young Orcadians This is a book about Orkney, for use in Orkney, designed and for the most part written by natives of Orkney. It owes its origin to the Edinburgh University Orcadian Association, the members of which realized the desirability of preparing for use in the schools of Orkney a book adapted to the special conditions of the Islands. Educationists now recognize that Knowledge ought, like Charity, to begin at home: this is true of every branch of knowledge - history, geography, literature, and the rest. They might even adopt with an educational reference the saying of the wise man, Wisdom is before him that hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth. An attempt has accordingly been made in this book to present to the young folks of Orkney a general view of their homeland, some description of its past and its present, and some knowledge of its naturalistic and its humanistic aspects, with the object of awakening their interest in their own Islands, in order that from this centre their knowledge may advance the more surely to the sweep of a widen horizon. For, like Charity again, while Knowledge must begin at home, it must not remain at home. While the scope of the book is wide, the treatment of each class of subjects is necessarily suggestive rather than exhaustive. All that is possible within the limits of a single small volume is to present illustrative specimens rather than a complete collection of studies. Hence there is abundant opportunity for the teacher to supplement the book by specializing in one direction...
