Can We Save Malaysia, Please?

By Thuan Chye Kee

Marshall Cavendish International (Asia) Pte Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Can We Save Malaysia, Please?, Thuan Chye Kee, After the 13th general election (GE13) in May 2013, Malaysians hoped that the ruling Barisan Nasional (BN) coalition would respond humbly and positively to the public cry for change and reform, especially since it lost the popular vote. But instead, the BN Government has continued to be arrogant, autocratic and bent on further politicising the issues of race and religion. Despite paying lip service to the need for national reconciliation, it has launched policies, pushed through laws, and committed acts of persecution that have succeeded in dividing the people even more. Its own supporters continually talk of another racial riot breaking out, like the one of May 13, 1969. The political situation in Malaysia is thus now worse than it has ever been before. And the prospect of saving Malaysia from potential disaster seems all the more hopeless. No-bullshit writer Kee Thuan Chye asserts the urgent need for change by highlighting the events and issues that have arisen since GE13 - ranging from the 'Allah' controversy to the revival of preventive detention to the acquittal of the duo charged with...
