Excerpt: .visited the spacious Building, which has been secured for the Ontario Ladies College, where a fine arch has been erected. On behalf of the Directors an Address of Welcome was presented to His Excellency by Mr. Holden, to which he made the following reply: --Mr. President, Ladles, and Gentlemen, --In the first place I must congratulate you und those who are interested in this most important Establishment upon the acquisition of a Mansion and of an Estate so admirably adapted to the purposes to which they are about to be devoted. It is needless for me to repeat to you how deep an interest both I and Lady Dufferin take in everything connected with the Education of the youth of this Country. My views in regard to education are so sufficiently known that it is unnecessary for me to state them on the present occasion, but I cannot help saying that I take it as a most happy augury that in the Room in which we are placed thero should stand the bust of one of the princes of European literature, of a man the healthiness of whose mind and the high standard and perfect taste of whose compositions it would be well it his successors in literature would imitate. I allude to Sir Walter Scott. I do not know whether it would be out of place to remark that there are dangers against which it is advisable for all those who are interested...
