Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Author s Note On June 18th 2010 I wrote Beauty from across the Room with the sole purpose of expressing my creativeness through poetry. Needless to say I didn t imagine that one poem would turn into a collection of my thoughts encased in a book of poetry. Imagination and purpose lead me to this idyllic yet rhythmic art form, but ultimately it was the development of my sense of self expression that has kept me channeling my energy in my writings. My form of writing is not captured by a certain style, nor do I tightrope down the lines of the basic rules to poetry. You won t see any iambic pentameters within this book, but you will feel my perspective and hear my creative voice. I chose to let my thoughts and feelings control the destiny of how each poem was written and presented to my audience. I wanted to tell stories that people could enjoy but also express an artistic point of view mixed with topics in which people could relate. My poetry is filled with details set up with meanings that unveil themselves after two or three reads, so the reader can visualize its purpose. My poetry is an illustration of emotions that you read off each page. I took on this challenge after finding my love for writing, but yet I maintain my hunger for growth. The poems are arranged in the order in which I wrote them to show my progression. While most of my poems focus on the aspects of love, I wouldn t be true to myself if I didn t also tell stories that dealt with the conscious mind...
