Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .At first glance most people think that Riding the Bus 1 is for people who ride the bus. That is far from the truth. The subtitle gives you three more clues about the content of my book: saving money dreams and inspiration. My book contains 101 inspirational and motivational poems that can help an individual get ahead in life simply by believing and moving forward, without giving up until the dream comes to total fruition. This book was given birth by the fall of the economy, my educational trips to Europe and my desire to write. When the economy began to fall in 2007 many people were caught by surprise. Very few people were ready to receive a cut in pay or worse, to be laid off from work with little hope of finding a job with decent pay. I was one of those victims of mishap and being unprepared for emergencies. For two years I tried to survive with zero dollars left at the end of each month. Nevertheless, I never gave up and I launched my non-profit organization to take my students on trips to Europe. At the end of my first educational trip in spring of 2010 I realized that I couldn t continue as usual. I began to reflect that while in Europe I never had the need to drive a car. I knew that the tires on my Tacoma were bare and if I continued driving under those conditions I could cause an accident. It was then that I decided that I would ride the bus to save money to buy tires. Little did I know that I would sell my car and...
